The Journey Continues with the 26th Annual La Palma Days

La Palma, Calif. – The City of La Palma will celebrate La Palma Days on Saturday, November 13, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at Central Park, 7821 Walker Street. The volunteer La Palma Days Coordinating Committee has been diligently working to provide the La Palma community with an event to remember. The Band Review starts at 9:45 a.m. with the community parade beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Over 105 units including Community Grand Marshal Bob Anthony and Military Grand Marshal Captain Ivan Ashbaugh, marching bands, dignitaries, schools, organizations, community groups, and the Western Antique Power Tractors will make their way down Walker Street in the annual La Palma Days Parade and Band Review on Saturday. Considered one of Southern California's premiere events, the Band Review will feature 32 junior and high school bands competing for top honors.

After the conclusion of the parade, Central Park will host the La Palma Days community festival. The festival will feature games and activities for all ages, entertainment, great food, specialty vendors, cultural and historical displays, and arts and crafts. To purchase discounted wristbands, which are good for all activities except the midway games, please visit the La Palma Recreation and Community Services Department prior to 5:00 p.m. on Friday, November 12. After that time, tickets or wristbands may be purchased at the event on November 13.

The main Pavilion Stage will provide various cultural and family entertainers throughout the day and the Arts and Crafts, and Cultural and Historical sections will provide unique opportunities for families to learn more about La Palma and its diverse community. Visit the craft booths and get the jump on your holiday shopping with a variety of handcrafted items. Come hungry as 14 food vendors will be offering delectable treats and international cuisine to satisfy everyone's taste buds.
