La Palma's "The Source" Neighborhood Watch Newsletter now Paperless

LA PALMA, Calif. – As part of the City's overall reduction in operating expenditures and in an effort to remain conservation minded the City will no longer be producing the "The Source" in a paper format. It will now be available in electronic format from the City's website, www.cityoflapalma.org. The community is encouraged to sign-up for the Notify Me service on the City's website to receive emails or text notifications when a new "Source" publication is available.

There will be an article in the October edition of "The Source" with more details regarding this change in distribution. Neighborhood Watch has indicated that a limited number of this monthly publication may need to be printed for those citizens who do not have access to a computer or the internet. Please contact your Neighborhood Watch Block Captain, District Coordinator, or Captain Jim Engen of the La Palma Police Department (714) 690-3381 or jengen@cityoflapalma.org if you have any questions regarding the need for a printed version of the publication.
