La Palma City Employees Give Back During the Holidays

LA PALMA, Calif. – The City of La Palma is pleased to announce that La Palma City employees recently donated, collected, and shipped over $1,200 worth of various items to American soldiers being processed through the Warrior Transition Unit at Camp Arifjan in Kuwait. The Warrior Transition Unit is a processing center for service men and women as they come into the country and as they leave to go back to their prospective bases.

The donated items included: personnel hygiene products, clothing, small electronics, DVD's, games, playing cards, various snacks and the like. For many years, La Palma employees have conducted Holiday collection drives to raise money for local families or various military programs. City Manager Ellen Volmert said, "The La Palma community has supported the City's 61 full-time and 35 part-time employees and it makes us proud to help our Armed Forces members serving overseas."
