La Palma City Council Adopts Goals for 2014

LA PALMA, Calif. – The La Palma City Council recently conducted its annual goal setting process and approved three priority goals for the year. The priority goals are to: receive a staff plan for a balanced 2014/15 budget by the end of February 2014; maintain and improve quality of life in the community; and approve a General Plan by the end of the fiscal year.

Some specifics under these goals include: no use of reserves for the City's operations budget, maintain a strong and effective Police Department, improve communications with the public, and continue to address the school district situation to let La Palma children attend La Palma schools.
