La Palma Police Department to swear-in newly appointed Police Captain

LA PALMA, Calif. – The La Palma Police Department is inviting the community to attend the swearing-in ceremony of recently appointed Police Captain, Terry Kim. The ceremony will take place in the La Palma City Council Chambers on Monday, October 6, 2014, at 5:00 p.m.; with light refreshments to follow.

Captain Kim, a 19 year veteran of the La Palma Police Department has served the department in wide variety of assignments, including: Watch Commander, Detective Sergeant, Detective, Canine Officer, and as a member of the Special Enforcement Team. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice Management and is a graduate of the prestigious Supervisory Leadership Institute.

Captain Kim was born and raised in Seoul Korea and at the age of fourteen he and his family moved to Southern California. He was hired as a La Palma Police Officer in 1995, after graduating from the Fullerton Police Academy.

In his new capacity, Captain Kim will be responsible for the La Palma Police Department's Operations Division which encompasses Patrol, Traffic Enforcement, S.W.A.T, the Reserve Police Officer Program, and Disaster Preparedness for the City.
