Businesses Come Together to Assist La Palma Resident

LA PALMA, Calif. – What started as a code enforcement challenge at 8182 Santa Margarita Lane, is now coming together as a volunteer community project. As a result of the efforts of La Palma based ARCO and other local businesses, the home will undergo a facelift in time for the holidays.

As the City was set to consider if the exterior conditions of the home might constitute a public nuisance, ARCO came forward and offered their employees as volunteers to help clean-up the property. Cornerstone Property Services, Inc., a Fountain Valley based general contractor, heard about the situation and quickly responded by offering their services as well, including donating materials and supplies for the project. Other companies that have also donated their services include: EDCO/Park Disposal of Buena Park, West Coast Arborists, Frazee Paint, O.H. Casey, Inc. and Faith Fellowship Church of La Palma.

The project is scheduled to kick-off on Wednesday, December 2, following initial tree trimming and removal by West Coast Arborists. The volunteer crews will be removing trash, debris, and overgrown vegetation; installing new fencing, irrigation, and landscaping; and repainting the home. City of La Palma employees will also be volunteering in the effort. The project is expected to be completed on December 10.
